The Banquet

Luke 14:15-24 ESV

I. The Banquet begins with you

- What parts of you might you consider poor, crippled, blind and lame?

II. The Banquet ends with them

- Who are the literal poor, crippled, blind and lame God is inviting you to serve?

For further thought and discussion:

Getting Started

1. What was helpful to you in this week's sermon? What didn't you understand?

Going Deeper

2. The Banquet begins with you: It is said that while Jesus lives in my heart, Grandpa lives in my bones. What are some wounded parts of my life that is reoccurring? Have I confessed sin to a trusted Christian brother or sister? Who can I go to for prayer, confession, accountability and support? If I'm feeling stuck, have I considered seeking therapy for inner healing work?
3. The Banquet ends with them: Read Luke 14:12-14, Jesus' words to invite to dinner those who cannot repay you and think through how you can actually do it. What barriers would you face? What concerns do you have? Where would you begin? What would be a tangible next step? Who could you involve with you to do it together?

Application

4. What's one thing you can do this week to apply this message?
